

NATHAN BOLES

I'm a Texas Tech student with majors in journalism, creative media industries, mathematics, and a minor in economics. I worked at KTXT for three years in the sports department, calling soccer, volleyball and softball games while running the KTXT Sports X/Twitter account and covering other sports like football and basketball. I also am a sports anchor/writer with Texas Tech's student newscast, MCTV. Currently, I'm a Scout Search Quality Rater with Welocalize.
